

ORE LESS IS MORE LESS

LEADER DISCUSSION GUIDE

LESS IS MORE

LEADER DISCUSSION GUIDE

WEEK 1 Less in the world is more in heaven

- What did you think about the facts shared at the beginning of the message? What shocked you the most?
- What stuck out to you the most about Jesus' interaction with the rich young ruler?
- Where do you draw your line at following Jesus? Be specific
- How do you feel when you are asked to give away things you have grown to idolize?
- Who in your life do you consider to be a generous person? What makes them generous?
- What are some things you are considering getting rid of this week?
- LEADER NOTE: Challenge them to follow through with it and commit to it yourself!!
- SOAP Study on Matthew 6:19-21

LESS IS MORE

LEADER DISCUSSION GUIDE

WEEK 2 Less of the world is more of Jesus

- Of the 3 basic desires, which do you personally feel most drawn to? Why?
- When it comes to belonging, what is something that you have done in your life that you wish you would not have done in order to belong?
- How do you feel when you think of the world hating you and calling you names like mentioned in the message?
- What has kept you from being bolder in your faith? (i.e. evangelizing or speaking up and supporting the 'less popular' opinion)
- Do you tend to be the person that is more susceptible to conforming to the world or the person that gets into their safe/church bubble? How has that affected your faith and the way you live your life?
- Did anyone decide for the first time to follow Jesus tonight? Did any of you make a decision to yourself to re-dedicate your life?
- LEADER NOTE: If yes, offer them Devo Book, Bible,

LESS IS MORE

LEADER DISCUSSION GUIDE

WEEK 3 Less of the self is more of Jesus

- In your own words, explain the phrase 'die to self'
- What things do you struggle with when it comes to meeting your own needs? What affect does it take on your physical/mental/spiritual health?
- Who do you think is a good example of someone that you know who models setting aside their own desires to pursue what God wants instead? Who? Have you ever intentionally chosen to sacrifice your wants/needs to honor Jesus?
- There were several verses in our message tonight, which stuck out to you the most and made the biggest impact on your experience during that message? Why?
- What is something you can intentionally do this week to make sure you are portraying Jesus over yourself?
- SOAP Study Romans 12:1-2

